

INTRODUCING THE QUEEN OF CARIBBEAN SOUL: KIM DERRICK

If you're a fan of soulful, powerhouse vocals and electrifying stage presence, then you need to hear the name Kim Derrick. This Barbadian treasure has been captivating audiences for decades with her dynamic range and ability to seamlessly blend genres from soul and pop to jazz, reggae, and calypso. With her at the helm, you're guaranteed a journey to "musical heaven."

Early Beginnings

At the tender age of 7, Kim began her journey as a singer in the choir of Hindsbury Primary School. But she didn't stop there, she also studied dance under the tutelage of Rachel Springer. Over the next decade, she wowed audiences and racked up countless awards for her singing and dancing abilities.

Making a Name for Herself

Kim entered and won the 1988 Richard Stoute Teen Talent competition. In 1989, at just 17 years old, she became the youngest female to join the Untouchables Calypso Tent. It was here that she joined the band Chocolate Affair and recorded the hit song "Soca Fire." A year later, she joined the band Axis and performed with the likes of Shabba Ranks and Maxi Priest. In 1992, she began singing with the band Shannah and even earned the Nightclub Band of the Year award in 1993.

Rising to the Top

Kim's career continued to soar in the 90s, becoming the vocalist and part-owner of the band Full Swing and recording the hit song "Congo Juice" which soared to the number 1 spot in New York and Trinidad. She toured North America and the Caribbean, and even founded her own band, Virtuosity.

Always Evolving

In 2022, Kim brought her incredible versatility, unmatched work ethic, and marvelous voice to Atlanta, Georgia for her ultimate project, the CD "I Am Kim Derrick." The first single was released in the winter of 2022, cementing her status as a powerhouse vocalist and entertainer.

A Decorated Career

Over the years, Kim has graced stages all over the world and has even been the featured performer at high-profile events such as the weddings of Tiger Woods and Roy Jones Jr. In 2007, she was honored with the Barbados Music Awards "Cornerstone Award." Her band Virtuosity has performed at prestigious venues from Portugal to Las Vegas and even worked their magic at the National HIV AIDS Commission Benefit in Washington D.C. Now President of the Barbados Association of Georgia INC 2025.
CEO and Founder of Virtuosity Soul Entertainment Inc.

EXPERIENCE THE MAGIC OF #KIMDERRICK LIVE AND CATCH HER ON TOUR

Virtuosity
Soul Entertainment Inc.

YouTube LINKS:

I Belong to You <https://youtu.be/nOILyxrH-8?si=Ubhm-Hlz75cBmnv7>
Greatess https://youtu.be/6KTB4_a2PLo?si=-SxD-J1RuLUlrZ_L